Thanks volunteer, Kirsten for finding this song

Thank you Abra for sharing a cup cake recipe with us from your library book. We printed a recipe for you of Butterfly cakes. Liz's grandmother use to make butterfly cakes for her when she was a little girl and it was a favourite.

Rosemary

Make a pot of Rosemary Tea to have with your cup cakes at the tea party

This Rosemary was grown in the Kitchen Garden at St Georges Road Primary School

Thank you to Marg Stothart for the suggestion to make Rosemary tea

How to make rosemary tea:-
*Add one sprig of rosemary for every cup of tea *Let sit for 3 to 5 minutes before drinking

If you wish you can add fresh lemon, mint,
chamomile and/or honey

History and Origin:

Rosemary is native to the dry, rocky areas of the Mediterranean, especially along the coast. Rosemary has been used since the time of the early Greeks and Romans. Greek scholars often wore a garland of the herb on their heads to help their memory during examinations.
